As an added attraction to the presence of the republican state candidates in Tempe this evening, two band concerts and a big free motion picture show are on program. All together, it will be one big night in Tempe and the local republican leaders are leaving nothing underse to iners are leaving nothing undone to in-sure the visiting candidates the largest crowd of any meeting of this largest crowd of any meeting of this campaign.

The opera house doors will be opened at seven o'clock and the Pallas picture featuring Dustin Farnum in 'David Garrick,' will be presented prior to the political meeting. It is a six-reel picture and one of the best that the Paramount program offers.

At the same time the band will be out on the street and they will continue their open air concert until the end of the picture show. The musicians will also be on deck for music during the course of the rally.

Tom Campbell Judge Kibbey, Henry Eads, J. Harrie Cloonan, Joe V. Prochaska, Judge O. J. Baughn and Norman J. McKenzie will be here tonight, and it is certain that they will be given a warm reception by the Tempe voters.

REYNOLDS IMPROVING

It will be good news to the many friends of Bobby Reynolds to learn that friends of Bobby Reynolds to learn that he has written stating that after two operations, one for appendicitis and the other on his throat, he is recovering rapidly, and is hoping to be home soon. Mr. Reynolds is the floor manager of the Toggery and since word was first received of his serious condition, Mesa people have been anxious to hear of his condition.

CAMPBELL AND KIBBEY TONIGHT A general invitation is extended the public without regard to political pref-erences to hear Tom Campbell and Judge Kibbey, both of whom will speak here tonight. This will be their last appearance in Mexa before the election.

THE HUNT FOR HUNT

The story goeth that Mayor Beville, president of the Mesa Democratic club, recently procured a lot of photographs of democratic candidates with which to festoon the wails of the club headlestoon the wails of the club head-quarters. Among them were some of the governor, but the pictures have disappeared and now the cold, bare wall stares forth where once hung the likeness of the chief executive. The president of the club is in common parlance "sore" about the matter, but the mystery of the disappearance re-mains unsolved.

MUSICAL BURGLAR

MUSICAL BURGLAR
Thursday night a burglar entered Sam Cohen's pool hall, evidently with malice and musical intent aforethought, for he stole a banjo belonging to Mr.
Cohen. No clue has been found leading to the identity of the burglar, but it has been basely suggested that some one needed the banjo to furnish slow music to the likeness of the governor which, an above stated, disappeared from its rightful place in the democratic headquarters.
